JOINT CST-CTRMS SCIENTIFIC MEETING

In 2017 our meeting goes international again giving not only our societies a unique opportunity to network and learn from each other, but our Industry partners also have a unique opportunity to collaborate with the societies on making this event extraordinary in a central location for North American and Europeans alike!

As a member of the transplant community, we hope you will join us this year. To gain access to the main plenary room at the Halifax Convention Centre delegates will be walking through the exhibitor's hall. The exhibitors will still be invited to the popular Presidents' Cocktail Reception but we will only host one main social event freeing up time for all participants to enjoy the local restaurants in Halifax.
