

BUSINESSES HELPING GIVE THE GIFT OF LIFE

Living donors give the gift of life but incur expenses to donate

A major part of donor expense is lost wages during recovery post donor surgery. "The Circle" recognizes companies that support living donors by providing lost wages.

NOTE: Your company is included in "The Circle" immediately after implementation of a policy to support donors. Because living donation is infrequent, your support of a living donor may not be needed for several years. You may already have a policy or program in place that can simply be modified to explicitly include living donors.
