

CST FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM TERMS OF REFERENCE

(last updated: Jan. 11, 2016)

Award Information	Details
Purpose of Award	To help foster the development of a research trainee in the field of transplantation in Canada, who demonstrates significant promise to develop into an independent researcher and make a substantial contribution to the field of transplantation
Number of Awards	One every year
Application Available	January of the year the Fellowship is to be awarded
How to Submit	All materials to be submitted as a single PDF file to admin@cst-transplant.ca
Application Deadline	February 29th, 2016
Award Notification	By May 31 st of the year the Fellowship is to be awarded
Award Announcement	By May 31 st of the year the Fellowship is to be awarded
Award Presentation	At Annual Scientific Meeting, of the year the Fellowship is to be awarded
Award Amount	$50,000 for 1 year, to commence on July 1 st of the year the Fellowship is to be awarded, to be paid to supervisor Name posted on CST website
Award Criteria	Must present their fellowship work at the Annual Scientific Meeting upon completion of the Fellowship. Attendance at all Annual Scientific Meetings is expected. CST must be acknowledged in all publications related to the Fellowship
Eligibility Criteria
CST Membership Required	Yes, Associate Membership
Canadian Residence Required	Yes, Canadian citizen or permanent resident
Academic Appointment/Job Offer Required	No
Application Required	Yes, in prescribed form
Letter of support	Yes, at least one, from principal supervisor Additional letter of support from another faculty member or co-supervisor is permitted
Nomination Required	Not applicable
Curriculum Vitae Required	Yes, in CIHR Common CV Format
Brief Bio Required	Optional (1 page limit)
Previous winners excluded	Yes
Number of applicants per supervisor permitted	One
Queries	admin@cst-transplant.ca